

Cologne Academy

Your Future Starts Here

June 1, 2017

Dear Cologne Academy Families,

I am so proud to lead such an amazing school filled with children that display a desire to learn, hold friendships, and value the core characteristics and ideals of the school. This is not by chance, as great kids come from great families. We belong to a community that supports each other. We are also blessed by an amazing staff that shows their passion for teaching and caring for kids that goes above any measure available.

On Tuesday night, Cologne Academy graduated our first class of kindergarteners from 2008 when the school opened. Forty-six amazing young adults crossed the stage for one last time to be awarded their graduation certificate. As an educator and as a parent, it is hard to let these 46 kids leave the Cologne Academy nest for their next educational chapter. Today is a happy day to see the growth of so many outstanding young adults and also bittersweet as some of our bonds are nine years' worth and saying goodbye is hard.

This I know, CA students go on to be amazing students at the high school level. Our students have the strength to endure the academic challenges, have core values that foster good decision-making, and have great skill, grit, and desire to persevere even when things are challenging.

As tradition, Cologne Academy honored several 8th grade students with the following awards:

President's Award for Educational Excellence

The purpose of this award is to recognize and honor students who have achieved high academic goals through hard work and dedication to learning. This year's recipients are Carli Cebulla, Joseph Freitas, and Addison Olstad.

President's Award for Educational Achievement

The purpose of this award is to recognize students that show outstanding educational growth, improvement, commitment to or intellectual development in their academic subjects. This year's recipients are Noah Bartels, Michelle Evans, and Elizabeth Fisher.

American Citizenship Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize model students who inspire and encourage other students to strive to be better citizens. This year's recipients are Caralynn Nelson and Lucas Rausenberger.
